Join your former colleagues.

Retirement is a new chapter, but it does not mean leaving your professional community behind. AAESQ Retirees brings former colleagues together to reconnect, share experiences, and enjoy meaningful activities throughout the year.

Welcome

Our retirees' association offers a warm and welcoming space where members continue to feel part of the AAESQ community.

Whether newly retired or retired for many years, this is a place to reconnect with former colleagues, renew friendships, and remain part of a professional network that understands the administrative experience and commitment to education.

Why join?

For the possibility to:

- Reconnect with former colleagues and friends.
- Take part in enjoyable social and cultural activities.
- Stay informed through regular bulletins and updates.
- Remain connected to a trusted educational community.
- Reminisce about the “good old days.”
